

The diagram shows two horizontal arrows, one red and one blue, pointing to the right, indicating a comparison or relationship between the components. Below the arrows, the equations $\bar{A}_x = \bar{B}_x$ and $\bar{A}_y \neq \bar{B}_y$ are displayed, showing that the x-components are equal while the y-components are not.